

Thapana Sirivadhanabhakdi

President and CEO

Thai Beverage Public Company Limited

Thapana Sirivadhanabhakdi was appointed President and CEO of Thai Beverage Public Company Limited in 2008 following its listing in Singapore Exchange in 2006. Under his Vision 2020 to become the leading total beverage company in ASEAN, the company has acquired Oishi Group, Sermasuk PLC, Fraser & Neave Ltd, Myanmar Distillery Company, Saigon Beer Alcohol Beverage Corporation and now owns a variety of restaurants from Thai, Chinese, Japanese and Western cuisine, including the recent acquisition of 252 outlets of KFC in Thailand.

His recent undertaking has been to support the government's "Pracharath Rak Samakkee", a public-private partnership programme to help the economic development of local communities in the areas of agriculture, community tourism and product value creation. Thapana is the Founder and Chairman of C asean, a social enterprise to promote ASEAN connectivity, business and cultural promotions for young entrepreneurs. He is also the Chairman of Foundation for Institute of Social Enterprise Development (FINS EDT) and Thai-UK Business Leadership Council.

Under Thapana's leadership, ThaiBev was awarded the Dow Jones Sustainability Indices (DJSI) for Emerging Markets in 2016 and World Level in 2017.

Thapana has a Bachelor of Business Management (Finance) and a Master of Science Administration in Financial Economics from Boston University, USA.
